Dear Ms. Bourque:

Thank you for your recent letter with the attached material, concerning the Honourable John McKay and Canada Post's exclusive privilege.

Mr. McKay, in his capacity as the Opposition critic for Crown Corporations, has noted the reactions of some, to the actions taken by Canada Post with regards to international remailers. I understand you have been in communication with Mr. McKay and that those discussions continue. While the Liberal Caucus has taken no position on this issue, we will continue to challenge the minority Conservative Government and to propose other options in all areas of policy.

Please accept my warmest regards.

Sincerely,
